Internationally Renowned Exhibitors Will Convene at the Premier Las Vegas Antique Jewelry & Watch Show

This trade-only show features the finest antique and vintage pieces, gemstones, and watches at the MGM Grand, June 3-6, 2010

Las Vegas, NV, May 25, 2010 – The annual trade-only Las Vegas Antique Jewelry & Watch Show today announced it will be held at MGM Grand during Jewelry Week, from June 3 - 6, 2010. Opening one day before the JCK Show, the Las Vegas Antique Jewelry & Watch Show will feature the finest antique and vintage pieces, gemstones and watches.

On the heels of recent reports indicating strong first quarter 2010 retail sales in the jewelry industry, this show will bring together more than 300 nationally and internationally renowned antique jewelry and watch dealers that feature the latest trends in extraordinary jewelry and watches, as well as rare and unusual historical pieces from famous brands.

"We are very optimistic that the American retail stores will be strong in attendance with great purchasing power," said Kurt Rothner, owner of Excalibur in Beverly Hills, Calif. "This, coupled with our new exhibit space, which is double in size from previous years to meet demand, makes us very excited for this year's show."

With designer pieces including Cartier, Rolex, Tiffany's, Harry Winston, David Webb, Patek Philippe and Van Cleef & Arpels. Much of the merchandise available is signed and many pieces have extensive provenances detailing previous ownership by celebrities or royalty.
