The 15th Annual Las Vegas Antique Jewelry & Watch Show Moves to MGM Grand

Show Opens June 3-6, 2010, More Accessible Than Ever

Las Vegas, NV, March 1, 2010 – dmg world media today announced the 15th Annual Las Vegas Antique Jewelry & Watch Show will ring in the new decade in a new location, the MGM Grand. The show opens June 3-6, 2010, and is more accessible than ever via monorail and taxi cabs.

The annual trade-only event, which opens one day before the JCK Show, will feature more than 300 nationally and internationally renowned antique jewelry and watch dealers with rare and unusual historical antique and vintage pieces, gemstones, and watches.

"We've always prided ourselves on having the best annual trade-only show for the antique and estate jewelry industry. From our new location, we are confident that our exhibitors will continue to bring highly coveted and fine quality jewelry, watches and gemstones," said Andrea Canady, fair director for dmg world media's Las Vegas Antique Jewelry & Watch Show.

Dealers at the show will exhibit extraordinary jewelry and watches from famous brands including Cartier, Rolex, Tiffany's, Harry Winston, David Webb, Patek Philippe and Van Cleef & Arpels. Much of the merchandise available is signed and many pieces have extensive provenances detailing previous ownership by celebrities or royalty.
